Premier Strategies, Inc. Founding Partner April Cardena Joins New York Urban League Panel to Address Affirmative Action and DEI Leadership

Manhattan, NY - Premier Strategies, Inc. is proud to announce that our Founding Partner, April Cardena, has been selected to participate in a prestigious panel organized by the New York Urban League. The panel will convene distinguished industry leaders to explore the recent Affirmative Action decision and its far-reaching implications for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) plans, as well as the pivotal role DEI leaders play in driving progress.

The New York Urban League is a revered institution committed to promoting equality, social justice, and economic empowerment in our community. This panel represents a unique opportunity to engage in meaningful dialogue about critical issues in the realm of diversity and inclusion.

April Cardena, a recognized authority in DEI initiatives and public policy, will bring her wealth of expertise to the table. Her inclusion as a panelist underscores the significant impact she has made in advancing equitable policies and fostering inclusivity, both within organizations and throughout society.

"We are honored that April Cardena has been chosen to participate in the New York Urban League's panel on Affirmative Action and DEI leadership," said Gregory Kirsopp, Founding Partner at Premier Strategies, Inc. "This is a testament to her commitment to driving positive change in our community, and we are proud to have her represent our firm in this important discussion."

The panel discussion will provide valuable insights into the recent Affirmative Action decision and the roles and responsibilities of DEI leaders in shaping a more inclusive future. It aligns with Premier Strategies, Inc.'s ongoing commitment to supporting equitable policies and advocating for change within the communities we serve.
