

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Premier Strategies, Inc. Supports Local Pantries During Pandemic

Brooklyn, NY (May 13, 2020) - Premier Strategies, Inc. is proud to announce our recent partnership with the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets and Brooklyn based community activist, Wally Alvarado. This partnership will help to supply food banks across Red Hook and Sunset Park, Brooklyn fresh produce and food locally sourced from within New York State to help feed thousands of Brooklyn residents currently struggling during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Since partnering in early May, through the efforts of Premier Strategies, Inc., Wally Alvarado, and the NYS Department of Agriculture and Markets, food banks within these Brooklyn communities have been able to feed over 5,000 residents.

Community activist and State Assembly candidate Wally Alvarado had this to say of the recent partnership,

“As the COVID-19 crisis persists, we will continue our efforts within Brooklyn and look to expand to into neighboring districts and other boroughs to help New Yorkers get the support and assistance they desperately need. Working alongside Premier and the Dept. of Agriculture, I have no doubt we will get the job done.”

Premier Strategies will continue our partnership efforts to assist New York City during this challenging time.
